In the spirit of the holidays, NSAA is offering all members, both Artist Members and Associate Artist Members an additional online exhibition. And just for this Holiday Exhibition, each artist may submit up to 3 paintings. When a painting sells the commission to NSAA will only be 25%. That means 75% will go to you, the artist. This is our way of saying thank you to all of our members who have remained steadfast throughout this extraordinary year. Linda and the staff and the Board will continue to pursue other opportunities for members to exhibit work over the coming weeks. So stay tuned.

Our current CONNECTED Gallery shows will continue to be available for viewing on our website, Facebook, Instagram and Youtube.
